TITAN Technology Partners Acquires GBSynergy to Create Oracle and SAP Training Powerhouse

CHARLOTTE, NC - (May 1, 2007) – TITAN Technology Partners, a leading provider of hosted and managed industry ERP solutions, announced today it has acquired Denver based GBSynergy to create a national training powerhouse for companies running Oracle and SAP software. GBSynergy delivers best-in-class customized ERP training based on adult learning theory, proven training methodology, and ERP expertise.

GBSynergy has helped hundreds of companies around the world create confident and self-sufficient ERP users through customized training. The acquisition expands TITAN's training solutions and significantly expands the services available to GBSynergy customers including hosted training environments and full life cycle managed services.

“The GBSynergy acquisition is a unique opportunity to provide our customers with exceptional services as they transform their organizations,” stated Michael A. Vadini, CEO and Founder of TITAN Technology Partners. “Customers expect excellence in their quest to accelerate adoption and stabilization of their mission critical systems. GBSynergy also strengthens our ability to transform legacy human capital - which we view as a critical competency in order to be an elite provider of professional and outsourced industry solutions and services across North America.”

Karmen Berentsen has been appointed Senior Vice President of Educational Services. Ms. Berentsen's primary responsibilities will be to incorporate educational services into TITAN's clients to accelerate the adoption of technology. Ms. Berentsen brings over 12 years' experience in providing training solutions which maximize technology investments for clients. Prior to the acquisition, Ms. Berentsen served as the President and Chief Executive Officer of GBSynergy where she expanded the company's focus from its JD Edwards heritage to expertise across all tier one platforms.

“The acquisition of GBSynergy by TITAN Technology Partners is a phenomenal strategic opportunity to deliver unprecedented full world-class training solutions,” stated Karmen Berentsen, CEO and President of GBSynergy. “Combining GBSynergy's strengths with TITAN's capabilities will accelerate innovation in the training industry. We are simply elated to be joining the stellar organization of TITAN.”
