TITAN Technology Partners Opens Center of Excellence in Pune, India

CHARLOTTE, NC (August 17, 2007) – TITAN Technology Partners, a leading provider of managed industry solutions, today announced the opening of the fifth TITAN Center of Excellence (TCOE) in Pune, India. Additionally, TITAN announced Suheb Siddiqui will serve as President of India Operations and Sanjay Bhagwat will serve as TITAN's Country Manager.

The Pune TCOE simplifies efforts to provide around the clock support for TITAN's outsourcing clients and provide support for large implementation projects. Centrally located in one of India's fastest growing technology centers with a population of 4.5 million, the center of excellence is drawing on the available talent from the areas' burgeoning software industry to initially ramp up to 50 resources.

"Mr. Siddiqui has continued to demonstrate his leadership on our executive team and with our strategy practice. Expanding his responsibility to oversee our India operations will ensure our Center of Excellence in Pune will adhere to the discipline process approach we take in supporting our clients," stated Michael Vadini, CEO and President of TITAN Technology Partners.

"TITAN is excited to be a part of India's phenomenal growth and talent pool," said Suheb Siddiqui, TITAN's President of India Operations and SVP of Strategy. "We are confident that our India Center of Excellence will further consolidate our position as our client's most preferred outsourcing provider. With our Pune TCOE, we are well positioned to provide exceptional offshore business process and systems management support while we also provide project capabilities, all encompassed in TITAN's best in class governance model."
